

Get up early enough to grab some fresh breakfast from 1 Shipley's Donuts, or beat the crowd for brunch at 2 First Watch.

Go for a walk on the 3 Stones River Greenway. Park at Kohl's.

Swing by 4 Clover Bottom Mansion to bone up on local history.

Read a book while grabbing lunch from Panini Cafe. 5

Pack a picnic (using the picnic cooler in the laundry room), grab a book and beach towels, and head to the lake by way of 6 Cook Public Recreation Area or 7 Anderson Beach.

After getting cleaned up, go to 8 McNamara's for a beer and a snack. If it's a Friday evening, check out the Farmer's Market 9 on the corner and sip a drink at Phat Bites while listening to the band. Finish up the day over at Homegrown Taproom. 10

End the night with a live rock n' roll band at 11 Shipwreck Cove, over at the Elm Hill Marina. Or is live music isn't your thing, walk around the Opry Hotel 12 (park at the movie theatre to save $20).